BE TOTALLY CONFIDENT

We're Totally Confident. We're TC Consult.

TC Consult provides expert quantity surveying and project management to clients across a range of sectors, including Aston Martin, 3M, the Welsh Government and Principality Building Society.

But it's not business as usual for us at TC Consult: we're reimagining the way property development and construction processes work – saving millions and improving projects as we go.

Careers at TC

We've got an ambition to become a £2m business by 2025, building on our history of growth since 2007. We're just getting started. Working at TC means working with best-in-class people and processes, while being able to really make your mark. No one is just another cog in the machine at TC.

At TC, our business and our reputation are on the up and up. We're working on a growing number of exciting projects for an increasing number of high profile clients. And we're being recognised for our work through prestigious industry awards, including RICS Wales Awards (for the Zip World Terminal building) and a place on the shortlist for the RICS Awards UK finals.

Our employees are nurtured and grow as the business does, thriving in our friendly, supportive and professional working environment with clear opportunities for progression and promotion with your personal development plan.

We value honesty, integrity and creative thinking at TC Consult, solving problems for clients and improving the way we do things.

"The team are very flexible, adapting their processes to the brief for our projects and always working alongside us to make them a success."
